Young Farmer Challenge - Team of 4

Sponsored by WESTERN AG

Think you have what it takes to enter a team in the Young Farmer Challenge? This unique and exciting event sees teams of four people race to complete a series of challenges that demonstrate the breadth of technical skills used by farmers in everyday field activities, such as stacking hay, using fire extinguisher and erecting a portable electric fence. The event will be run as a relay race with members completing a number of tasks in pairs or teams of 4.

The Young Farmer Challenge will take place at 3pm in front of the shearing pavilion.

Open to young people aged 18 – 30 to compete in teams of 4.

Each Team must contain both Male and Female members.

Don't miss this opportunity to showcase your skills and have fun.

Grab your friends and enter a team today.

Please use General Entry Form – page 27

Sashes for first and second placed teams.

All team members are invited to stay for evening meal and get together.

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. All entries must be made in writing and lodged with the Secretary, as per sections. Please assist by entering as soon as possible
2. All exhibits must be the bona fide property or work of the exhibitor, and if required a declaration is to be made to that effect
3. All exhibits must remain on the ground until 4.15pm on Showday unless special permission, in writing to remove same is given by the Secretary.
4. The society will not be responsible for any accident or damage that may be caused through or by any exhibit. It shall be a condition of entry that each exhibitor shall not hold the Society liable, and shall indemnify the Society against any legal proceedings arising from such accident.
5. Membership entitles the holder to admission to Showgrounds for Member, Spouse & Children (Sec. School age & under), also discounted entry fees.
6. No judge shall be an exhibitor in the sections in which he/she is judging.
7. A judge may award a second or third prize instead of a first, or may withhold a prize altogether where exhibits are not considered worthy. The Committee reserves the right to withhold a prize altogether where there is only one exhibit competing, even if the judge has awarded a prize, or The Committee may give a second prize instead of a first prize.
8. When a judge thinks any article or stock worthy of a prize and none is offered, that judge may recommend an award for the Committee's consideration.
9. Any person insulting or interfering with the judges, stewards or officers of the Society during the show will be subject to removal and the prizes (if any) awarded to such person may be forfeited.
10. Any exhibitor or attendant who refuses to attach the prize card to any exhibit for which a prize is awarded, and to display same during the hours of exhibition, will, on proof thereof to the Committee, be disqualified from receiving all prizes awarded for such exhibit during the show. No exhibitor will be allowed to display any prize card in addition to those issued by the Society for the year.
11. Should any exhibit having gained a prize be disqualified, the next in line does not necessarily receive the prize. The decision of the Committee on all points shall be final without recourse. The Committee, with or without the advice of the judge shall make the final decision.
12. All persons exhibiting shall accept, subject to reservation in Clause 11, the decision of the judge appointed by the Society as to the merits of their exhibits, and in the case of protests alleging infringement of the regulations, the Committee decision shall be accepted as final and without appeal.
13. Protests against awards must be lodged with Secretary, in writing before 4.00pm on Show day, with a deposit of $10. This may be forfeited to the Society if the protest be found, on consideration, to be without substance or frivolous. All Events operate as per rules & regulations for that section.
14. Judges and Stewards shall wear a ribbon by way of identification.
15. Prize cards will be printed and attached to the successful exhibits as follows:- First - blue; Second - red; Third – black or yellow.
16. The Society will not be liable for exhibits.
17. The Committee reserves the right to refuse or cancel any entry without giving reason for so doing.
18. The Committee may withhold a prize where an exhibitor makes erroneous or fraudulent statements in his/her entry. The entry as well as the exhibitor may be disqualified from exhibiting at the Show, for a period as determined by the Committee. A disqualified exhibitor, if also a member, shall be liable to expulsion from the Society.
19. All entries shall be made in accordance with the rules & regulations of the Society. Entries shall be accepted only on that basis.
20. The Society is prepared to give liberal encouragement to various novelties calculated to improve existing and new industries.
21. Prize lists and entry forms and any other necessary information in connection with the show may be obtained from the Secretary.
22. Until a Member's subscription, entry fee etc., are paid in full, no prize or trophy shall be claimed
23. All dogs must be tied up on a leash at all times unless competing in trials, races or jumps.
